Next Steps

If you have questions or want more details on a course reach out to your Sales Account Manager, your Customer Success Manager or contact customertraining@intapp.com

We are always looking for firms interested in hosting training at their offices. Host firms receive one free seat for the hosted training. If you are interested in hosting contact customertraining@intapp.com

Firms are able to arrange an onsite course, for attendees from their firm. These onsite courses can follow a standard curriculum or can be customized to meet the unique needs of the firm. For more details contact customertraining@intapp.com
